

COLLEEN HANNAH

Principal
St. Mary's College
Sault Ste. Marie

Colleen began her career for the Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board as a teacher.

She entered her first leadership position as an elementary vice-principal in 2004, then elementary principal in 2007, and finally secondary principal in 2018.

Colleen is a graduate of Catholic elementary and secondary schools and has a Bachelor of Arts in English and Philosophy, as well as a Master of Education in Curriculum Studies.

A parishioner of St. Jerome Parish, Colleen is also a Eucharistic minister, a member of the sacramental preparation team, and a member of the Catholic Woman's League.

Colleen is an advocate for social justice who believes that people are each called to live their lives in service of others.

She volunteers for a variety of social justice initiatives and is currently a member of the Hope Alliance.

